THE REPEAL BILL PASSED.

Unconditional Repeal of the Sherman Law Passed the Senate, the Vote Being Yeas, 43; Nays, 32—End of a Debate That Lasted Sixty-One Days.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—At 7:20, by a vote of 43 to 32, the senate after one of the most remarkable and memorable parliamentary battles of a generation, passed the bill unconditionally repealing the purchase clause of the Sherman silver law. The end was reached at the conclusion of a continuous session of 14 days, after 61 days of debate, during which five volumes of the congressional record had been filled with speeches amounting in the aggregate to about 20,000,000 words, a stream of talk that would stretch in cold type from the seaboard 1,600 miles in the interior, from Liberty Enlightening the World in New York harbor, to the foothills of the Rocky mountains.

The closing day of the great struggle for the repeal of the purchase of silver was one of intense excitement. The galleries were packed to the doors, every seat in the senate was occupied and the walls were lined with representatives from the lower branch of congress. The agitators of senatorial courtesy was no protection in the last moments. Grey-haired men, inflamed by the fiery passions that always characterize the close of a bitter contest, did not spare each other.

Senator Morgan with words that fairly burned, heaped his denunciation on Senator Voorhees, the leader of the administration forces, and Senator Woicott, the Colorado Hotspur, concluded a fierce philippic against Senator Carey with the Spanish proverb of Goncho Panza, that it was a waste of labor to shave an ass.

The silver Republicans, Teller, Stewart, Dubois, Woicott and Jones, Peffer, the Populist, and Morgan, and the old war governor of Tennessee, Harris, each made his valedictory.

The Democrats were hot and angry at the desertion of some of their colleagues that made their defeat possible, the Populists admonished the senate that the doom of silver was the doom of the old parties, but there was something tragically pathetic in the despairing cry of the silver senators. It meant, they said, ruin and destruction and desolation to the silver producing states.

Senator Jones, with an emphasis that will never be forgotten by those who heard him, warned those about him that the end of the fight marked the beginning of the battle that would be waged before the people. In tones, deep and tragic, he repeated Dundee's famous defiance of Gordon:

There be hills beyond Pentland,
And firths beyond Forth;
If there be lords in the lowlands
There be chiefs in the north.

Senator Stewart had the last word when the white-bearded Nevadan, looking an ancient patriarch, sank back in his seat. Vice President Stevenson, for the last time, announced that the bill was before the senate for amendment. He paused. Senator Voorhees, the Tall Sycamore of the Wabash, arose. The decisive moment had come. The vice president flashed his eyeballs about the chamber. The galleries leaned over. The flood of light from the glass-paneled ceiling poured down upon the senate. The chamber was still as death. Not a soul stirred. Every one seemed to hold his breath. "If there are no further amendments," said the vice president, slowly and solemnly, "the clerk will call the roll."

"Mr. Allen," began the clerk. The response was over. The Rubicon had been passed. The roll was at last being called on the final passage of the bill. From all over the chamber came a sigh of relief. Mr. Bland, the silver champion of the house, stood like a statue behind the senate desks while the roll was called.

Mr. Sherman and Mr. Voorhees facing each other bolt upright did not move a muscle. Mr. Peffer stroked his beard. Mr. Mills and Mr. Cockrell paced impatiently up and down the area in front of the vice president's chair. Mr. Hill sat in the front row talking to his late antagonist, Mr. Butler.

It took almost 10 minutes to call the roll and arrange the pairs. When the vice president announced the vote Mr. Voorhees straightened up to his full length. It was a personal victory for him. "I now move," said he, with a note of triumph in his voice, "that the senate adjourn until tomorrow at 12 o'clock." Before the question could be put the occupants of the galleries were jostling each other in their attempts to crowd out of the doors. The senators fled from the chamber. In 60 seconds none but a few employees remained upon the scene. The long battle was over; the field deserted.

Those voting in the negative were: Allen, Bate, Berry, Blackburn, Butler, Call, Cameron, Cockrell, Coke, Daniel, Dubois, George, Harris, Irby, Jones of Arkansas, Jones of Nevada, Kyle, Martin, Pascoe, Peffer, Perkins, Pettibone, Power, Pugh, Roach, Shoup.

Stewart, Teller, Vance, Vest, Walthall, Woicott—32.

MURDERER PRENDERGAST INDICTED.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Murderer Prendergast was formally indicted by the grand jury. Inspector Shea was the only witness. Prendergast was quietly smoking a cigar when told by a jailer of the indictment. The prisoner took the cigar from his mouth and remarked: "Well?"

The members of Mr. Harrison's immediate family were more composed and went for a short drive in the afternoon. Mrs. Peasley, the mayor's daughter, left her room for the first time since the tragedy.

It is probable that the city council at its meeting next Monday will be obliged to call a special election for mayor, to be held some time not less than 20 days from that meeting and within a reasonable time. It is also probable that at that meeting the aldermen will elect one of their number to serve as mayor until such time as another mayor shall be elected by the people, and that the member so chosen will be vested with all the powers, rights and privileges of a regularly chosen chief executive.

All day Corporation Counsel Kraus and his assistant searched the statutes for some clause or section bearing upon the present emergency. The result was the finding of a section of the old city charter providing just for such an emergency as has now arisen. The new city charter, adopted in 1872, under which the city government is now being run, provides that such sections or provisions of the old charter as are not in conflict with the new city charter, shall be considered operative.

This section of the old city charter provides for the election of a temporary mayor, who shall be vested with the full power of the regular mayor, by the city council, and who shall serve until a new mayor is regularly elected. It further provides that the city council shall call a special election for the selection of a new mayor within 10 days after the vacancy had occurred.

Under the provisions of the election law a special election may be held with 20 days notice, the only provision being that the names of the candidates must be certified to the board of election commissioners 15 days prior to the day of the election. It is possible, therefore, to elect a successor to the office made vacant by the late Mayor Harrison before the first day of December.

THE WRATTEN MURDERS.

It Is Believed That Stone Will Make Another Confession.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Oct. 31.—There are, so far, no new developments in the Wratten murder case, and William Stone, the self-confessed murderer, sticks to his last confession. But those who know him best think he is at any moment liable to come forth with another one.

He passed the Sunday reading the Bible, praying, and weeping some, and telling that the Lord has saved him.

A great number of people think it utterly impossible that Stone should have killed the six Wrattens himself, but whether he did or not, it is certainly not impossible, some of the most notorious murders of the century having been committed by one person.

Many will recall the horrible Probst murder near Philadelphia, Probst killing five grown people. The Parks murder, in this county, where the same number of people were slaughtered, was also presumably committed by one person, though the mystery was never cleared. Two negroes were lynched for the crime, but they did not confess, and there is much doubt whether they did the deed.

Died in His Pew.

MARION, Ind., Oct. 31.—John A. Bartley, a member of the soldiers' home, died suddenly from heart disease, in the First Methodist church of this city, Sunday morning. After climbing the stairs to the main room, he shook hands with several of his church friends, and seemed in his usual health and spirits. As soon as he seated himself in the pew his head fell back and his eyes became set in death. Assistance was rendered, but life became extinct very shortly. The deceased was 73 years old, and he was formerly a member of Company A, Thirty-seventh Pennsylvania infantry.

Row It Resulted.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Clifford won easily in the sweepstakes mile and a quarter race at Hawthorne, in which he, Yo Tambien and Lamplighter fought for the $8,000 prize. For the first half Yo Tambien, the favorite, kept her glistening chestnut coat in the lead, but from the three-quarter post Clifford had it just to suit him and went under the wire in 2:09 3/4, with Yo Tambien 15 lengths away and with Lamplighter 20 lengths behind the mare.

Warehouses Destroyed.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 31.—A fire of unknown origin, destroyed the warehouses and tinshop of Bridgford & Company, on Sixth near Main street, at 6:05 o'clock yesterday evening. The structure was four stories and was filled with a stock of finished tinware. Damage to building, $15,000; to stock, $45,000; to machinery, $10,000. Insured for $40,000. The fire started in the cellar and gutted the establishment.

WESTCHESTER, O., Oct. 31.—A house and its contents, belonging to Clark's Louisiana Jubilee Singers, were destroyed by fire. Gasoline leaking from a stove caused the blaze. Seven hundred dollars in money was also burned.

WORLD'S FAIR LAST DAY.

The Death of Mayor Harrison Put a Damp on All Festivities.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The official life of the world's fair has ended. Yesterday evening was to have been one of gaiety and dazzling brilliancy, but the death of Mayor Harrison changed all that. The meeting at Festival hall during the afternoon was brief. The audience was detained just long enough to hear an earnest prayer by the Rev. Mr. Barrows, a few explanatory remarks regarding the change of program by President Palmer, the reading of an appropriate speech by President Higginbotham and the resolutions of sympathy concerning Carter Harrison's untimely end.

These resolutions were read by H. N. Higginbotham, president of the world's Columbian exposition, who began in a clear, firm voice, which grew husky and trembled for a moment with emotion when a certain passage in the resolutions was reached. Mr. Harrison and Mr. Higginbotham had long been associated.

The fair was declared closed by Thomas W. Palmer, president of the national commission, in the following words: "It was intended to close this fair simultaneously with the sound of this gavel, the firing of artillery and the lowering of the flag. All that has been changed by the sad circumstances which bring us together now. I announce that when the sun sets the closing will be marked only by a salute, and the hauling down of the flag. When that takes place I declare, in obedience to the act of congress, the exposition is officially closed."

Before giving the benediction, Rev. Mr. Barrows announced that he had been requested by the committee to read the speech President Higginbotham had written for this day prior to Mr. Harrison's demise. The speech was as follows:

"This is not the time for oratory. A duty calls us together which we must perform, though it fills us with sadness. The hour is at hand when our Festival must close, and when the material things of which it is composed must turn back to the four quarters of the globe, and the structures which sheltered them to the elements out of which they were created."

"This is not the time for exultation over our victory except in so far as to recognize that without the favor of the God that guided the frail craft of the voyager, 450 years ago, to this land, it could not have been achieved. Exultation would be undignified. Gratitude to the Almighty is the only feeling that I can harbor in my breast except the sorrow which this closing hour evokes. We are turning our backs upon the fairest dream of civilization, and are about to consign it to the dust. It is like the death of a dear friend. It is like bidding farewell to one's youth. It is like all those times in the life of a man when the thoughts of the present are choked with the emotions of the past."

"At such times the call of duty, alone, can uplift the heart and arouse it to meet the things that are yet to come. That call is upon each one of us now. It echoes in the hearts of all that have been touched by these wonders which God has brought to pass. It bids us learn the lessons of the past season to the everlasting benefit of ourselves and our children. It bids us appropriate to ourselves the imperishable parts of this high feast of the arts, industries and sciences, and so embalm them in memory's treasure house, so that they may be best preserved and produce the largest fruit in the generations to come."

"Let us go forward to meet the duties of the future without fear; sustained by the faith that what we have wrought will endure and forever stand as a beacon light, guiding others to loftier heights and greater achievements."

"Following are the resolutions that were adopted:

"A deep and heartfelt sorrow has fallen upon the closing hours of the world's Columbian exposition. Death, come as it may, leaves as a heritage to the living, mental pain and suffering, immeasurably intensified when its agency is a cowardly and infamous assassin."

"Nothing has ever occurred in our midst that has so disturbed and distressed our citizens as the very wicked and wanton termination of the life of Hon. Carter H. Harrison. The tranquility of the city has been shaken as if by an earthquake. The officials of the world's Columbian exposition, the commissioners and representatives of all foreign countries, and the commissioners of the several states mourn the loss of an honored official, and lay upon the altar preserved and kept sacred his memory in the hearts of all his friends, this humble tribute of respect and admiration."

"Speaking for all here assembled, representatives of the various interests that have made this exposition so grandly successful both in its national and international character, we claim that Carter H. Harrison was something more than chief magistrate of this metropolitan city. As a director of the world's Columbian exposition he at all times sought to impress upon the exposition its true national and international character and to emphasize the fact that it was promoted by and in the interest of the people of all the world."

"To all our friends, without distinction of race or nationality, his welcome has been cordial, generous and unstinted, and none in his representative capacity could have more thoroughly attested the generous hospitality of this city, whose chief magistrate he was."

"Your committee beg leave to submit the following resolutions: RESOLVED, That the foregoing minutes be adopted by this assembly, consisting of the officials of the world's Columbian commission, the world's Columbian exposition, the representatives of foreign nations, and the commissioners of the several states and territories, and that a duly engrossed copy thereof, under the hands of the president of this assembly and the chairman of the joint committee on resolutions, be transmitted to the family of our deceased brother, Carter H. Harrison, and that copies thereof be also delivered to the world's Columbian commission and the world's Columbian exposition. Be it further,

Resolved, That we commend and approve the order of the director general recording the order heretofore issued for closing ceremonies, but we deem it proper and advisable that the several officers appointed to address this assembly upon the several subjects assigned them respectively, as a part of the closing ceremonies of the exposition, be requested to deliver such papers to the secretary of the world's Columbian exposition, to be filed and made a part of the records of the exposition.

SEQUEL TO A FAMILY QUARREL.

SANDUSKY, O., Oct. 31.—A sensation was caused here by Edith Hastings, who committed suicide by taking laudanum, while imprisoned in the county jail. The suicide was the sequel to a family quarrel which occurred on Sunday at the young woman's home in this city.

A relative of the unfortunate girl filed an affidavit in lunacy against her in the probate court. She was committed to jail on Sunday afternoon. Next morning it was discovered she had taken poison. Medical assistance was of no avail and death occurred at noon yesterday. The deceased was quite recently a conspicuous prisoner in the courts of New York city, where she was sentenced to imprisonment for a term of five years for grand larceny.

Through the intervention of friends and legal talent here the sentence of the court was revoked, and she has since resided in this city. Insanity is charged as the cause of the rash deed.

Murder Case at an End.

LEBANON, Ind., Oct. 31.—The verdict in the Brown-Wesner murder case here is not guilty. At Danville, Ind., May 20, J. C. Brown killed C. S. Wesner in the courtroom during a quarrel. He was brought here on a charge of venue, and the trial began Oct. 17.

The jury retired at noon Saturday, and at 3 a. m. Sunday returned the above verdict. Brown was overjoyed. Mrs. Brown and her sister-in-law, the two sons of Wesner and three spectators were all that witnessed the closing scene, not an attorney from either side being present. Brown left with his family for Chicago to see the fair.

It is believed he will compromise Mrs. Wesner's suit for $10,000 damages for the killing of her husband, which is pending.

Accident on the Rail.

SANDUSKY, O., Oct. 31.—While a Lake Erie and Western passenger train was entering this city last night over the Short Line crossing, about a mile west of town, a cut of Short Line freight cars was switched against the passenger, striking the smoking car and knocking it off the track. Thomas Caffery of Lafayette, traveling engineer of the Lake Erie, who was in the wrecked car, had two ribs broken and received other slight bruises. None of the other passengers were injured.

A Determined Suicide.

DILLSBORO, Ind., Oct. 31.—Preston Hamilton, a farmer near here, made a remarkable attempt at suicide. He went out, burned up some corn shocks, climbed a tall tree and jumped from its top with suicidal intent. He was found lying in a pool of blood in a field. He had cut his wrists. He still lives. Dr. O. P. M. Ford was called and attended his wounds. The loss of his farm by mortgage and domestic trouble is the supposed cause. Recovery doubtful.

Incendary Work.

BRANLIN, Ind., Oct. 31.—The pretty home of Mr. Vancie, at Staunton, was destroyed by fire. All the contents were consumed. Loss about $300, insurance about $400. An hour later the cooper shop of Philip Boor, at the same place, was discovered to be in flames. The fire was extinguished before any serious damage was done. Piled around on the corner of the building was a heap of rubbish, saturated with coal oil.

They Are Voting in Brazil.

RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 31.—The election in Brazil is being watched with anxious eyes by the civilized world, for the defeat of the administration candidate will mean a rebuke that would swing the insurgents under Admiral De Melo into power and probably eventuate in the restoration of the monarchy.

Named by the President.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The president has nominated Edwin F. Uhl of Michigan to be assistant secretary of state, vice Joseph Quincy, resigned, and James R. Roosevelt of New York to be secretary of embassy of the United States at London, vice Henry White, resigned.

Must Remain in Prison.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 31.—Judge Lea has declined to admit Jacob Laser to bail. He, with his brother Dave, was indicted for the murder of Ben Levinson, in this city July 22 last. All the parties are Jews. Dave, who did the shooting, is still in jail, and has not applied for bail.

No Evidence Against Him.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 31.—Charles A. Hardin, who has been held at the county jail suspected of being Charles Ketchum, was discharged by Judge Field, who held that the prosecution failed to identify him as the man wanted in Kansas City.

CRANKS AT LARGE.

Followers of Prendergast Are Becoming Numerous.

A NEW YORK MAN SHOT.

The Would-Be Assassin After a Desperate Struggle Locked Up in the Police Station—Another Crank Demands Five Thousand Dollars of Edwin Gould.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—At 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon a crazy man emulating the example of the man who, on Saturday night shot down and killed Mayor Harrison, fired two shots from a 6-barrelled revolver into the stomach of a man whom he, in his insanity, imagined had done him a wrong. The man who was shot was Frederick Matthies. The man who did the shooting is said to be named Thomas Bradley. Matthies is superintendent of construction of the new Postal Telegraph building at Murray street and Broadway.

But for the fact that 10 policemen of the Broadway squad with their bodies and batons defended the prostrate, bleeding, mangled and shrieking form of the would-be murderer, an infuriated mob of over 1,500 men armed with sticks, clubs and stones, would have lynched the fellow. The police had all they could do to keep back the struggling crowd, and, as it was, many a head was cracked by the police in their struggles to get the crazy man through the crowd.

The police cleared the place and marched into the basement. Behind the pile of cornice in the northeast corner lay the man who had attempted to murder Superintendent Matthies. They took up portions behind piles of cornice which had been rapidly thrown up as breastworks. The man had hidden himself behind a pile about 10 feet high, 3 feet deep and about 10 feet long. The man behind was crouching very low down and in one hand he held his pistol already cocked.

To secure the man out the police opened fire and about 20 shots were fired. The man did not come out at the first volley, but when a policeman got upon top of the pile while the others were averting the man's attention and pointed a pistol at him already cocked, and told him that unless he came out in three minutes he would be a dead man, the man threw up his hands. The policeman took out his watch and called out at the end of one minute; then at the second minute. There was heard an ominous clicking as every policeman in the crowd cocked his revolver. The man started out with his hands.

Policeman Dan Gillespie made a rush at the man about 10 feet before he got to the exit of Broadway and hit him on the head with his stick. The man, shrieking and crying, striking out right and left with his fist, was felled to the ground and half a dozen policemen fell on top of him. It required three minutes' steady clubbing to subdue the man, who struggled like a wild cat. Then ensued another wild rush and the crowd tried to get at the man to lynch him. The policemen had the greatest difficulty in getting the man through the crowd to the stationhouse.

From witnesses of the shooting, the men who had been working at the place all day long, it was learned that the man had been loafing around the building all day. He had been hiding behind piles of bricks and saying that the policemen and the superintendent were after him, trying to murder him for stealing $500.

The men paid no attention to him. At 3:30 o'clock the man came from behind a pile, and stepping up to the superintendent, deliberately fired two shots into his stomach. Then, waving his umbrella and yelling for the men to keep back, he took refuge behind a pile of bricks.

The man was locked up in the city hall police station as a suspicious character. He told the same story about the policeman trying to murder him for $500 he had stolen. Matthies is in a critical condition and will probably die within a few hours.

AFTER EDWIN GOULD.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—A crank named Mongolio Andrews presented himself at the Western Union building yesterday and demanded $5,000 from Mr. Edwin Gould, threatening to shoot him if he did not give him that sum of money, which he claimed he had lost in the strike in Kansas.

The man was held in the office until the superintendent of police was communicated with. He claimed to be a resident of Kansas. He was an undersized man with a dark mustache and wore good clothes. A letter was found in his pocket addressed to Mr. Gould. He was taken to police headquarters where he will be detained for examination.

Andrews, it appears by telegrams he has in his possession, contemplated calling on most of the prominent capitalists of New York, as their addresses were found in his pocket. It is said he is a telegraph operator.

OVER TWENTY-ONE MILLION.

Total Attendance at the World's Fair During the Past Six Months.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The total paid attendance at the world's fair from the opening day and including yesterday was 21,458,910, divided as follows: May, 1,050,037; June, 3,075,113; July, 2,760,263; August, 3,515,498; September, 4,688,902; October, 6,700,102.

The total admissions on passes, including the employees of all kinds, exhibitors, concessionaires, etc., has been 6,953,818. Yesterday's admissions reached a total of 242,575.

If the Democrats of Ohio poll their full vote this year, they will retire Major McKinley to private life.

Hon. A. P. Gooding won the Senatorial nomination fairly and honestly, and deserves the full Democratic vote next Tuesday.

Within the next few days over half the window glass factories in the United States will resume operations. The business outlook continues to grow brighter.

This is the last week of the campaign. Every Democrat in this county and Senatorial district should go to the polls next Tuesday and see that the party nominees receive the full vote.

Hon. David G. Colson spent $30,000 trying to secure the Republican nomination for Congress in the Eleventh district last year and then didn't win it. The news from Barboursville is that he will try again. Colson doesn't appear to be a success as a politician.

It is very seldom that Republicans vote for a Democrat, and even then it is generally for some personal grievance. We have heard of a case where a Republican refused to vote for a neighbor on the Democratic ticket although there was no Republican opposing him. His only reason was that his neighbor was a Democrat. Let Democrats stick to their party nominees.

The handsomest, the best and the most complete stock of silverware in town can always be found at Ballenger's jewelry store. Just the articles for wedding presents.

GEORGE SUMMERS, colored, of Carlisle, was in town yesterday searching for his wife. She left home a few days ago, taking, among other things, two trunks and $25 in cash. Summers believes she is with Alfred Fox, who left Carlisle two days later. The couple are thought to be in Ironton. Summers recently bought some property in the Sixth ward, this city.

CONTROLLER ECHOLS, of the national currency, has heard of Kentucky's new Corporation law, which gives the Secretary of the State supervision of the banks of the State, and which requires these institutions to make quarterly reports of their condition. He recently wrote for a summary of these reports. The Secretary forwarded to him a synopsis, and is now in receipt of a letter from the Controller containing thanks for "just the information he desired."

At the wedding of Mr. George Humlong and Miss May Asbury near Germantown, last week, the following guests from a distance were in attendance: Mr. Will Dwire, of Quincy, Ill.; Misses Mattie, Ella and Josie Dwire, Mrs. Asbury and Mrs. Best and son, of Covington; Mr. Ben Wood and wife and Miss Fannie Maddox, of Sardis; Miss Lula Jones, of Walton; Mrs. Garvey, and Mr. Dave Riggs, Erlanger; Mrs. Tiller, of Sparta, and Miss Bennie Ledbetter, of North Carolina.

A PHOTOGRAPHER of Atlantic City, N. Y., produces a photograph at a single exposure which gives five different images of the same person in different positions. This is accomplished by placing the sitter between two mirrors placed at an angle of forty-five degrees to each other. The double reflection between these mirrors produce four images of the person placed in front of them, the principle being the same as that of the ordinary kaleidoscope. The original face is made in profile and the reflections give the full face, opposite profile, and two rear views.

The courts of Pike and Letcher counties, Kentucky, have just established the title of the John Craig heirs to a large landed estate of 20,000 acres in the rich coal fields of Eastern Kentucky, the estimated value of the property being $2,000,000. About five years ago, John Helm, an attorney of Louisville, was examining the records in Pike County when he accidentally discovered that a title for 20,000 acres of land was clear to the heirs of John Craig. He immediately began to look into the matter. Continuous work since then has established the claims of the rightful heirs. Most of them live in Indianapolis.

REV. CHARLES H. DOBBS, who had been visiting and preaching at Washington for a week, left on Saturday for his home in Greenbrier County, West Virginia. Everyone at his old home was glad to see him, as he had endeared himself to all by his good works and christian charity during his former residence of several years among them, and he had a delightful visit. He was chaplain in the Fifteenth Mississippi Regiment during the war, and went through all the great battles in the East, notably Chancellorsville and Gettysburg. It was in Mr. Dobbs' old brigade that Colonel Partridge, who fought a duel with Henry McArdle, formerly of this city, served. Messrs. Partridge and McArdle were editors of rival newspapers at Vicksburg, and the duel was the outcome of political controversies. Mr. Dobbs lived for many years in Texas after leaving this county, but was compelled to remove to the mountains of Virginia on account of the ill health of his younger children.

For the Farmer.

This year's crop of hay in Iowa will be worth not far from $45,000,000.
 It will take 30,000 freight cars to carry East this year's fruit output from California.
 The wheat crop of 1893 is now estimated at 370,000,000 bushels, just enough for home consumption.
 It is estimated that several hundred acres of Carter County land will be cleared this winter and put in shape for tobacco raising for the coming year.
 The Industrial American advises farmers to hold their wheat. It says: "Now is the time to hold; the future will bring the time to sell." The American is opposed to the pending Anti-Option bill, and says if it is adopted it will place the wheat growers at the mercy of the millers of the country.

The October report of the statistician, issued by the Department of Agriculture, shows that during July there were 6,606 tons of hay imported by Great Britain from the United States against 723 tons last year. The imports for August reached 11,362 tons this year against 160 tons last year, and for eight months this year the total is 54,319 tons compared with 7,375 tons a year ago. The short crop abroad is the direct cause of this large export demand for American hay.

"A Comic Album."

"A comic album of home life" is a term applied to the latest comedy success, "Zeb," which is to be presented at the opera house Thursday evening, November 2nd. "Zeb" is a hilarious comedy with a pleasing dramatic story, told in a funny, home-like manner. Most of the scenes are laid within a few miles of Muncie, Ind., and the characters introduced are said to be true to life, in dress, habits and action. The piece is replete with singing, dancing and nothing but the best and high-class specialties are given. The company carry an excellent quartette, and an abundance of special scenic and mechanical effects, and it is claimed that not one old or worn out effect is introduced. Prices 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents. Seats at Nelson's.

Last of the Season.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway will run its last excursion of the season to Cincinnati on Sunday, November 5th; tickets good returning November 5th, 6th and 7th. This will give excursionists an opportunity to combine business with pleasure and at very low rates. Special train will leave Maysville at 9:55 a. m., arriving at Cincinnati at 11:30 a. m. Round trip rate only $1.25. Besides the star attractions at the different theatres, the German Military, Infantry and Cavalry Band of Berlin, Germany, consisting of eighty pieces, now performing at the World's Fair, will play at Cincinnati Music Hall November 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th.

The O. and O.'s Wonderful Growth.

In 1888 the C. and O. carried 740,807 passengers; in 1893, 2,466,299, an increase of 233 per cent. The passenger revenue of 1888 was $303,722.41; last year, $2,356,974.86.
 In 1888 the road carried 2,558,063 tons of freight, and in 1893 5,698,881, or an increase of 115 per cent. The gross revenue from freight in 1888 was $3,417,875.66, and in 1893, $7,565,511.32.
 The total earnings from everything in 1888 were $4,522,312.47, and in 1893, $10,336,810.47, an increase of 129 per cent.

That Joyful Feeling

With the exhilarating sense of renewed health and strength and internal cleanliness, which follows the use of Syrup of Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old time medicines and the cheap substitutes sometimes offered but never accepted by the well informed.

Big Tax Collections.

Sheriff Jefferson and his Deputies, Messrs. Perrine and Robinson, collected $7,500 taxes yesterday. It was one of the busiest days they ever had. The penalty of 6 per cent. will be added to all taxes not paid to-day.

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

Rev. R. G. Wilder, Princeton, N. J., says:—"I find nothing helps so much to keep me in working condition as Simmons Liver Regulator."

MRS. HIRAM DYE.

On the 15th of October, 1893, in the forty-seventh year of her age, Mrs. Lee Anna B. Clift, wife of Hiram Dye, Esq., passed quietly to that mysterious realm beyond the river of death.
 There is no tie which Death, the great destroyer, severs forever upon earth more endearing in its intimacy, more holy in its nature, than that which binds a faithful husband to an affectionate wife and mother. This remediless affliction, to which the sincere condolence of friends affords no relief, has fallen upon Squire Hiram Dye, of Mayslick. We tender to him and his bereaved children our sincere sympathy in this, their greatest sorrow.
 In the genial ministries of her own home how "Aunt Lee" will be missed! and by none more visibly than by the little, tiny, cooling grandson, Grover Clarke, who had never known any other mother than she, and no caress was so tender and no kisses so sweet as those that fell from dear grandma's lips. For this lovely act of self-sacrifice, for this two years of unremitting devotion to the infant orphan, when she herself was so fragile and delicate, the angel that writes in "a book of gold" will see that her name is "written there," and in heaven a wreath of perennial blossoms will encircle her brow. Come soon and avoid the rush. Respectfully, J. C. JEFFERSON, Sheriff of Mason County.

THE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Proceedings of Saturday's Session at Minerva—The Visitors—Next Meeting at Lewisburg.

The Mason County Teachers' Association met at Minerva last Saturday, Superintendent Blatterman presiding, and opened with prayer by Thomas Chandler, and singing by the association. The subject of "Mental Arithmetic" was presented by Miss Eva McDaniel, of Fern Leaf. Professor Alley, of Ripley, and others took part in the discussion.

"The Best System of Maintaining Order in School" was discussed by Miss Florella Wylie and Miss Anna Bambach, both of Ripley. The main point brought out was that what one teacher could succeed with was not suitable for another.

The topic, "How to Secure School Apparatus," provoked quite a discussion, some maintaining it was best to have teachers and pupils prepare apparatus, supply books for libraries and thereby create an interest in the school for such supplies. Others as stoutly maintained that under the present methods of conducting schools, and with the new law relating to supplies, that the apparatus, books, &c., should be furnished by the proper authorities, letting the teacher and pupils have the use of the best article, and thereby save time for other work.

The topic of "How to Induce Parents to Visit the School," elicited a warm discussion. Some maintained there should be visiting only at stated times and when there was a special programme prepared. Others at stated times, but only the regular school work. Still others thought visitors should come at any and all times.

The enjoyable feature of the day was the bountiful spread prepared by the generous-hearted people of Minerva. How the teachers did enjoy that dinner! Every one had a hearty welcome. Many good wishes to the people of Minerva. She never does things by halves. The following visitors were present:

Miss Ella Biehn, Prof. S. F. Alley and wife, Misses Lide Martin, Flora Herzog, Florella Wylie, Anna Bambach, Minnie Fleigg and Nellie Greenhow, all of Ripley; Prof. T. J. Curry, of Germantown; and Misses Lessie Fisher, Jennie Woods, Bessie Donovan and Julia Moneyhon, of Augusta; and Thomas S. Hawes, of Minerva.

The following Mason County teachers were present:

Hayes Thomas and Ellsworth Swift were appointed Committee on Programme for next meeting.

WHILE the Armstrong Bell Ringers and Concert Company were giving an entertainment in Masonic Hall, Aberdeen, Saturday night, some one stole their band wagon and horse. The company has been playing in hard luck for some time past, and has been stopping in all the small towns in Brown and Adams counties, riding from place to place in the wagon. The outfit had not been recovered yesterday afternoon.

A FRANKFORT special says that money has been pouring into the State Treasury the last few days in good big sums, which is expected to be increased during the first days of November. Tuesday, October 31, is the last day that the Sheriffs can give the tax-payers receipts in full upon the payment of the face value of these receipts. Beginning November 1 the Sheriffs are mandatorily required under the new revenue law to assess a penalty of 6 per cent. against all persons whose taxes for the current year remain unpaid. For every $100 of taxes they now owe, they will be compelled to pay $106 after November 1.

Special Registration.

Up to 10 o'clock this morning sixty-six voters had taken advantage of the special registration, fourteen of whom are colored. To-morrow is the last day of this special registration. If you were necessarily absent from the city on regular registration day, or were kept at home by sickness, call on the County Clerk and have your name added to the list.

HOW THINGS STRUCK J. B. H.

While in the "White City" Amidst the Fascinations of Midway Plaisance.

In my tour of observation at the Fair my purpose was to let the BULLETIN readers, if possible, look through my glasses. Descriptions of galleries of art, paintings, etc., have been avoided, as possessing interest to those only who have traveled over the same ground and become familiar with the details necessary to make these descriptions clear.

"Do tell us some thing about Midway Plaisance," says one of my Kentucky correspondents. Here we are. The Midway Plaisance is one mile long and broader than it's long, if all reports are true. It forms the connecting link between Jackson and Washington Parks.

The tourist now turns to the interesting reproduction of noted foreign buildings, of classic old world towns. They are like so many mirrors held up to the faces of foreign nations, reflecting at a glance their feelings toward America and the Exposition, and the faults and excellencies as well as their civilizations. Never since the building of the Tower of Babel has such a variety of tongues been brought together as in the mystic locality we are about to explore. Without quitting Lake Michigan's pebbly shore the tourist can inspect the Temple of Luxor which stood by the hundred-gated Thebes' historic walls, haggle for a curio with a swart follower of Mahomet, as if he were on the banks of the "Golden Horn," watch the war dance of Dahomey's dusky Amazonian belles, see Hagenbeck's lions and tigers, bears and dogs and elephants mingle and play with each other in perfect harmony, see fifteenth century architecture and ride the camels and donkeys in the street in Cairo, see the dancng girls of Egypt in the famous "danse du ventre," or muscle jig, the musicians and conjurers, the wedding processions, take a ride on the Ferris wheel, the 261-foot high hicycle, and then visit "Old Vienna," with its church and thirty-six buildings, its grand restaurant seating a thousand people, try a Viennese hill of fare of coffee and bread and other delicacies and hear the concerts by the Hungarian Band of sixty Austrian musicians, and if you don't shout when they play "Marching Through Georgia," then you are not an orthodox Methodist.

Now, if you are not too tired, we will visit the new Lapland baby, Columbia Palmer, born on the Midway and named in honor of the Exposition and Mrs. Potter Palmer, and then have a flight in the balloon, and when above the clouds we will have a grand view of the two cities, the lake and the county of Cook. Now to the Moorish Palace, where by an ingenious arrangement of mirrors the visitor with her innamorata can see themselves in four hundred different multiplications.

The lengthy itinerary suggests a rest to the fatigued muscles, and we will take a trip on the lagoons. The real secret of the popularity of the Fair is the splendor of the spectacular effects. The night scenes surpass expectation. Drifting idly along we take in the beauties of the Court of Honor, the electricity building, the illuminated Ferris wheel, the variegated effects of the electric fountains, the lovely grouping of architectural marvels. The picture fills the eye and satisfies the imagination. Preparing for dream land we take in the beauty show and then board the elevated train for Chicago.

A CALLED meeting of all the old members of Myrtle Division, S. of T., will be held at the residence of Win. Dawson, in Fifth ward, Friday, November 3rd, at 7 o'clock. All others interested in temperance work are invited.

THE Chesapeake and Ohio is now turning over to the Big Four at Cincinnati 200 or 250 car-loads of west-bound freight a day, and between Cincinnati and Indianapolis it is difficult to prevent a blockade. So heavy is the passenger business that it is slow work getting freight trains over the road.

JUDGE B. D. LACEY, whose death the BULLETIN announced yesterday, was, in his younger days, a resident of Washington, this county, where he studied law in the office of Rochester Beatty, Esq. Our correspondent at Washington entertains a kindly remembrance of him on account of a present he received at his hands almost a half century ago.

THE ladies of the First Presbyterian Church will open their "exchange" next Saturday in the vacant store room of Newton Cooper, opposite Mitchell, Finch & Co.'s Bank. December 8th and 9th they will hold a church bazaar. All sorts of pretty things will be for sale. A novel entertainment for the children will be divulged. Those wishing pretty Xmas presents, made by hand, will do well to keep in mind this bazaar.

WM. W. ROEMM and Joseph Schweizer, Jr., of Augusta, have secured a patent on a car coupler, a simple device consisting of the ordinary bumpers with a little alteration, with what might be termed an open link instead of the ordinary link. The link is made of steel, open at one end and so arranged that the simple backing of the cars together makes the coupling without the necessity of the brakeman going between the cars. There is also an arrangement to be placed on touders by which the engineer may uncouple his engine from his train at a moment's warning without leaving the cab. The cars may be uncoupled either from the ground or the top of the car.

A HOOSIER EL DORADO.

Farming Abandoned to Hunt the Yellow Stuff.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 31.—For many years people have been finding bits of gold in Morgan and Brown counties. Until a few days ago it was never believed that it could be found in paying quantities. Several months ago some old "49" miners went to Brown county and began to wash gold by hand from the gullies between the hills. They were fairly successful. The excitement has been increased by the announcement that gold has also been found in paying quantities in this (Morgan) county.

John M. McCann, a wealthy citizen of this county, has become interested. He is here showing $30 worth of gold in coarse particles. He will take back with him a patent gold washer and W. S. Richards, an expert in gold mining. Mr. Richards is one of the persons interested in the gold industry in Brown county.

Several men have abandoned their farms and are making a living gold hunting. John Merriman recently sold about $400 worth. This represented the labor of his family for about a month. Mr. Richards says there is a gold lead reaching through the hills 14 miles. As soon as the machinery ordered arrives he will develop this lead. Foreigners are coming in and buying land. The Pence brothers of Bartholomew county have bought largely and will mine on an extensive scale. Last week 12 farms changed hands in Jackson township.

CHINESE RIOTING.

Eighteen Celestials Seek Safety Fearing the Anti-Chinese League.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—More Chinese rioting reported Saturday night in the Caluenga valley, a vegetable gardening district between this city and the ocean. Since the Geary law lapsed into inaction the white vegetable growers became so incensed and demonstrative that nearly all the Chinese left of their own accord.

A hundred and fifty members of the anti-Chinese league organized Saturday night, however, and moved upon Hancock, Griffin and the Deuker ranches, the largest in the family. Eighteen Chinese found in shacks were driven to the city and so badly frightened that they will not return. Many shots were fired, but no one was injured. The evicted Chinese have employed counsel.

Novel Suit.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—An unhappy pair of Kentuckians have entered an odd contest over a will. It is the novel spectacle of a husband and wife contending over the property of a mutual friend. The case is now before the orphans' court. When Michael Belcher, a tailor, died intestate a month or so ago one Bartholomew Kalaher of Winchester, Ky., put in a claim to the estate on the ground of being a brother-in-law. And now Kate Kalaher, deserted wife of Bartholomew, has filed a counter petition for the property. After her husband left her she lived at Belcher's, and after the death of Mrs. Belcher remained as housekeeper and confidential servant. She believes that Belcher intended to leave his property to her as payment for her services, and she is certain he did not wish it to go to his brother-in-law, whom he disliked. The entire estate will not amount to more than $1,000.

Accident on the Race Track.

KNOXVILLE, Oct. 31.—One jockey was killed and another frightfully mangled in an accident on the South Side race track yesterday afternoon. The horse ridden by Joe Burns, a well known jockey in the south, fell, throwing Burns over the horse's head. Another horse, ridden by Boyd McDannell, was close up, and fell over the other horse. Both horses in trying to regain their feet trampled on Burns, inflicting fatal injuries. J. Dannel may recover. The horse ridden by Burns was seriously injured and it was necessary to shoot him.

Admonition for Wre.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 31.—A meeting of the unemployed here developed an unalloyed anarchist in one E. T. Adams, a laborer, who in an incendiary speech declared the time for talk had gone by. It was time for action. The relief committee, he said, would meet and make great plans, but do nothing for them. "We have got to fight," he said, "for our rights. We have got to have a war, and we might as well get at it."

Station Agent Shot.

MOUNT VERNON, Ky., Oct. 31.—Saturday afternoon, at Wildie, a station on the Kentucky Central railroad, six miles north of this place, W. L. Vallandigham, the Adams express agent, was dangerously shot by Pat Taylor. Taylor demanded a package and because the agent did not wait on him at once, drew his pistol and shot the man in the abdomen. He will probably die. Taylor is in jail.

Shot His Rival.

PADDY RUN, O., Oct. 31.—John Floyd and Henry J. Smith were suitors for a girl named Lucy White. Floyd called on her and while the two were sitting in a room, Smith appeared at the window with a double-barreled shotgun. He fired and struck Floyd in the back of the neck, mortally wounding him. Some of the shot also struck the girl. Smith fled.

Was Shot by Moonshiners.

MADISON, Ind., Oct. 31.—About the 7th of last August Hosea Hildreth of this city was found near Mammoth Cave, Ky., beside the railroad track mangled by a passing train. News has just been received that Hildreth was shot by moonshiners and then placed on the track in order to make his death appear to be accidental.

Drinking Water Poisoned.

LAPEL, Ind., Oct. 31.—Two women were seen standing with no apparent purpose, near the well at the home of Emma and Mary Loggitt. The water later on had a peculiar appearance, and analysis has shown that it contained arsenic. Suspicious as to who throw the poison into the well have not yet been confirmed.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

Complete Manhood and how to attain it.

At last a medical work that tells the causes, describes the effects, points the remedy. This is scientifically the most valuable, artistically the most beautiful, medical book that has appeared for years; 96 pages, every page bearing a half-tone illustration in tints. Some of the subjects treated are Nervous Debility, Impotency, Sterility, Development, Varicocele, The Husband, Those Intending Marriage, etc. Every man who would know the grand truths, the plain facts, the old secrets, and the new discoveries of medical science as applied to married life, who would atone for past follies and avoid future pitfalls, should write for this wonderful little book. It will be sent free, under seal. Address the publishers, Erie Medical Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
